Tell Me a Story: Incidents and People Fifty Years on Five Continents

By MR Richard J Reilly

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In a collection of 45 short stories, extracted from his journals, the author chronicles people from his early years in a small rural town and later in his 50-year working life in the wider world. He highlights people who provide expert assistance in times of need and other interesting people, who appear unexpectedly in odd circumstances. Two of these appear as the author suffers engine failures in small aircraft in the mountain west, one of them at night. Although a few obstreperous misfits appear along the way, the reader will close the book with upbeat feelings about fellow human beings. Even the self-centered Big Boss , the inept Mr. Big and the frenetic Smith, leave you with a smile. The book has no chronological organization but rather a deliberate randomness as these stories might appear in an afternoon s conversation with a friend. To provide some semblance of order the author assembled the various stories under broad categories: Good Samaritans Those wonderful people who see another in need an feel a compulsion to assist without the promise of...
