

Fostering Cayden: Thoughts on Discipleship (Paperback)

By MR J Victor Fink

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Cayden, a newborn baby boy, is given to foster parents when he is only three days old. Knowing the uncertainty of the foster situation, Cayden s new foster grandfather outlines a vision for this baby s growth into Christian manhood. Grandfather Vic begins by sharing his personal motivation behind this training. Each short chapter that follows then addresses from a biblical perspective several critical Christian discipleship considerations. The approach is holistic; addressing Cayden s heart, faith, eyes, mind, strength, and voice with both reason and tenderness. Above all, the book is spiritually-minded providing many thought provoking quotes and calls for prayer. While this little book may have been written for a baby named Cayden, the information within it applies to a broad Christian audience.
