

Handbook of French and Belgian Protestantism (Paperback)

By Louise Seymour Houghton

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From the INTRODUCTION. The people of America have during the past four years become deeply interested in the people of France and Belgium. While this has been a profound and unlimited human interest, it is natural and obvious that, in association with it, the evangelical churches of America should have a special concern for their suffering brethren of the evangelical churches in these nations. Heretofore there has been little contact between these churches, other than the occasional expression of sentiments of esteem and good will. The experiences of the war have now translated our sympathy into terms of service. This volume has been prepared to meet the demand of the pastors and members of our churches for ready information concerning the history and especially the present conditions, of our sister churches in France and Belgium. Mrs. Louise Seymour Houghton has for decades been rendering distinguished service of this kind through voice and pen. No one in America knows better the history of the Huguenot and other Protestant churches in France than she and no one has entered more deeply into...
