By Kenneth Esrig

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2004. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Inspirations of Love, Life and Loss demonstrates the author's vision of hope under any type of hardship. After the loss of his young wife, Esrig is faced with the challenges of raising two young children on his own. His demonstration of emotions is clear in a chapter titled The Feeling Zone. Wrestling with day-to-day events includes the emotional conflicts we all experience. His compelling poem The Emotional War ties together the conflict of feelings. Mr. Esrig's career has been as a Hospital and Healthcare administrator and his wife, Jill, was a compassionate nurse. Their family has experienced first-hand the devastation of diseases and losses that rip into so many families. The chapter entitled Honey we need to talk. (After the Game) and the poem of the same name places the reader face to face with the issues of receiving a positive diagnosis to cancer all the way through the struggle that follows. The need to give back to the community is a theme that is clearly demonstrated in the chapter entitled, Days Wasted can never be replaced. Esrig, who volunteers...
