Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Black Nationalism: Alive and Well does not mean Black people are sitting around in treasonous gatherings and plotting to overthrow the US government; nor does it mean we are praying for this nation to become a failed state. More pointedly, Black Nationalism does mean, first, as Marcus Garvey instructed, we could be critical and patriotic Americans and still proactively advocate for Africa and Africans worldwide.as people and place of cultural origin. However most important, as we stand today, Black Nationalism does mean that African-Americans have risen to a sophisticated level of historical, spiritual, and psychological consciousness. They have progressed tremendously beyond the brutish stage foundation patriots had consigned them through legislative fiat, for when in 1662 the law decreed enslaved Africans and their descendants thenceforth would be considered sub-human and chattel in perpetuity. Its generally agreed, you cannot keep a man in the gutter without muddying yourself! Thus, the slave trade, slavery and the behavior of racial hatred and prejudice has created a pathological mindset in the European and American psyche that even after shedding the physical brutality associated with the resulting behaviors, has maintained a suspicion about the Black man that has proved even more dangerous for the inherent implications. As such, it is true Blacks are more astutely aware of the forces arrayed against the religious, spiritual and moral significance they are and intend to become with the help of God, their strength, their redeemer. Does the Mandela Prison to Presidency mantra tell the true story of the people s struggles to Free South Africa? Do Southern Sheriffs execute the law to its unbiased fullest? Who are personalities keeping alive Black Nationalist aspirations and views? Who defends the Black when...
