

Fresh Fire That Woke the Remnant of Christ (Paperback)

By Mark Ray Wilson

Mark Ray Wilson, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A fictional narrative about a last days revival that will sweep the word changing every believer, making them fit for battle. Satan and all of his fallen angels were trying to figure out what was going on in heaven. There were angels flying out of heaven in formation to position themselves around the churches and spiritual centers around the world so that when then fresh fire hit, Satan and all of his minions would be caught off guard, completely unaware of the attack. Their lack of revelation knowledge has always been their weakness. All of heaven was alive with activity as the war angels sharpened their swords. Creatures of all types and sizes were ready for battle calling the things that are not as though they were. The power of God was so strong it was going to have to go somewhere. There were color changes in the atmosphere the closer they came to the time of the impending download of anointing. This book is s short read because I wanted men to read it as well. It was on my...
