Reviews

It is fantastic and great. It is written in easy words and phrases instead of confusing. I am just delighted to explain how this is actually the best book I have ever read through during my individual life and might be the finest publication for ever.

Editorial Projects in Education. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, What We Know About: Reading at the Middle and High School Levels, Building Active Readers Across the Curriculum, Elizabeth A. Wilson, Reading skills are crucial to the academic achievement of students at the middle and high school levels. Do your students have the strategic reading skills they need to succeed? Do your teachers effectively integrate reading instruction into their classes? What do your teachers do if they have students who have difficulty reading? This third edition of 'Reading at the Middle and High School Levels, Building Active Readers Across the Curriculum' addresses these questions and much more. Through this resource you and your staff will learn: approaches to help poor readers develop good reading habits' ways to increase student interest in reading for pleasure' how to effectively incorporate reading into subject areas such as social studies, science, and maths; examples of what works according to school personnel in regard to reading instruction; and how to motivate students to become engaged readers.
