Not illustrated. 1908 Excerpt: .in their cells, but are allowed the use of the corridors. The bedding and clothing is washed by the prisoners inside of the jail. Bathing is required once a week. The food is furnished by contract, 15 cents a meal. This jail is entirely inadequate for the county, and the board of supervisors have consulted with this Board in reference to the reconstruction of the cell house, so as to provide a larger building with two floors. This should be done, both for the classification and because the additional cells are needed. MARIN COUNTY. W. P. Taylor, Sheriff, San Rafael. Average number of prisoners in jail 4 Total number in jail during the year 313 This jail is located in the basement of the courthouse. The courthouse building is of brick with wood interior, though the basement floor is of cement. There is a central hall, or corridor, running lengthwise of the rear part of the courthouse basement. On either side of this corridor are three rooms, with outside windows in each room. The rooms are partly underground, and the windows extend down at least halfway below the surface of the ground. The windows are well protected by bars, and around the outside intruders are kept away by means of a high fence. On one side of the corridor the rooms are arranged with beds. On the other side, the two end rooms opening into the middle one, have steel cages made of plate with open...
