Preview: Ezekiel was far away from his land, living in the hostile country in poverty. On a clear summer day, he was walking alone and reflecting. He was agonizing over the future of Jerusalem. Suddenly he heard the sound of thunder. Huge storm was approaching from the north. Ezekiel was hypnotized by it and kept looking at it. He was taken aback, because the storm was coming directly at him. This was when inside the storm he saw the celestial chariot of Creator. It was made of fire and had wheels that were burning fire. On top of it was something that looked like an amazing throne with colors of rainbow emanating from it. On the throne, the likeliness of the glory of the Creator was sitting. One can only imagine the shock of Ezekiel. He was astonished and shaken. Feelings of honor and excitement flooded over him. He immediately prostrated himself on the ground. He was shaking and didn't dare to move a muscle. He...
