FAITH LOVE IS ENOUGH: : THE FOUNDATION VOLUME I (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .We often hear of curse stricken generational hardships within families who suffer from strife, heartache, and grief. In most cases, those accosted with these genealogical curses which hinder the growth and successes throughout each individual family member s lifespan are not only an aggravation but sometimes have fatal results. The only curse that Dottie-Mae (Meyers) Powers (Dot for short) family suffers from is Real love that transcends through time and all of life s situations. Dot s lineage is blessed when it comes to long-lasting love. Imagine being a young trio of friends; young Dot, Jade, and Dirk were practically inseparable until Dirk developed tender adolescent emotions for one of his female friends. While Jade was on summer vacation with her family, Dirk s feelings grew stronger and he could no longer stifle what he was feeling for his true love. How will his choice affect the friendship between Dot and Jade? Will they choose friendship over love? When Joe (Joseph Eli Meyers) saw Kate (Kathy Isabelle Darling) for the first time, he was in awe, the vision that stood before him was the most beautiful creation he had ever laid his eyes on. Joe had to meet her; he was not going to let this moment pass without finding out her name and if she was dating anyone? Feeling nervous, butterflies in his belly he approached her to introduce himself, he can only hope she was interested in him too. Will Joe s heart be crushed? Is Kate his one and only true love? Dena Jenkins was about to take an awful tumble to the ground at the local soda shop until she was saved by an unknown handsome fella. Griffin...
