

Masters and Commanders: The Military Geniuses Who Led the West to Victory in World War II

By Andrew Roberts

Penguin Books Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Masters and Commanders: The Military Geniuses Who Led the West to Victory in World War II, Andrew Roberts, Andrew Roberts' "Masters and Commanders: The Military Geniuses who led the West to Victory in WWII" tells the story of how four great leaders fought each other over how best to fight Hitler. During the Second World War the master strategy of the West was shaped by four titanic figures: Winston Churchill and Franklin Roosevelt, and their respective military commanders - General Sir Alan Brooke and General George C. Marshall. Each man was tough-willed and strong minded. And each was certain he knew best how to achieve victory. Drawing on previously unpublished material, including for the first time verbatim reports of Churchill's War Cabinet meetings, Andrew Roberts' acclaimed history recreates with vivid immediacy the fiery debates and political maneuverings, the rebuffs and the charm, the explosive rows and dramatic reconciliations, as the masters and commanders of the Western Alliance fought each other over the best way to fight Adolf Hitler. "History as it should be written; a gripping narrative". (Michael Gove, "Mail on Sunday" Books of the Year). "Scintillating historical writing on the...
