Margie Makes a Difference (Hardback)

By Dawn Brotherton

Blue Dragon Publishing, LLC, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Margie loves playing travel, fastpitch softball with the Lady Tigers. Her teammates become her second family. When her dad deploys to Afghanistan with the Air Force, Margie decides that she wants to do something special to take her mind off missing him. She and her friends put together a baseball/softball camp for the younger kids of the other parents that have deployed. The first one is such a success that they are asked to do it again. This time, the Lady Tigers pull out all the stops. Using technology, they are able to stream the sports camp so the parents in Afghanistan can stay involved in their kids lives, even when apart. This is especially important to 8-year-old Jake, whose mother is a pilot deployed with the unit. Jake learns the importance of what his mother is doing and why she has to be away from him. The Tigers learn that working with others is a fun way to support the military and their families at home.
