Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book covers what you need to know about the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, known as Obamacare. Both individuals and small business owners will discover (1) how easy it will be to purchase health insurance over the internet, by way of the Public Exchange (2) how to get subsidies from the federal government to help reduce their premium costs (3) and how to get free assistance completing the application from Navigators. The real surprise will be when you discover that all health plans sold on the Public Exchanges are comprehensive plans that contain ten essential benefits including: prescription drugs, maternity and newborn care, and preventive care services. Often when our leaders have made major decisions that drastically affects our nation, the impact of those decisions may not be known for many months or even years. During those periods of uncertainty, we as a nation vacillate in a pool of darkness and fear. However, as the darkness slowly clears and the path of hope and bright sunlight appear, we rejoice in jubilation, for the truth has been revealed and our anxieties and worry have now passed - Obamacare.
