BLESSING AND PRAISE (PAPERBACK)

Xulon Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The author provides many profound examples of God s fulfilled promises, which will deeply inspire each reader. A spiritually passionate tone creates a contagious reading, and readers will become more in tune with blessings everywhere as they strengthen their empathy and consideration for others. Author and Speaker Nancy Shoap resides in Walnut Bottom, Pennsylvania with her husband Dave and their cat Ace. Ace was the cat featured in Miracles of His Care, one of the Guideposts books in the exclusive series, When Miracles Happen. It was about physical and spiritual healing, which resulted in a gift of new sight for writing. After being published, she was inspired to write His Everyday Promises, a collection of true accounts experienced in everyday life. Each one shows, as the poem Footprints in the Sand illustrates, God is carrying us in our most desperate of times. She promoted the book by participating in various venues sharing her testimony of how God accomplished His plans for her life. As a result many people told of their experiences and suggested that they be included in this book. She felt led to create a ministry of inspirational speaking and uplifting sing-a-long music. This allowed audience participation and interaction from which she received numerous blessings. This was the origin of Blessing and Praise. For information about this ministry, please visit Nancy describes herself as an ordinary person who was a willing vessel for God to use to write these stories. It is her desire that readers will be motivated to see how God fulfills promises, and how sustaining their faith will allow them to stay aware of blessings they receive. As you read them may you be encouraged to tell...
