

¡A curarse!

By Geis Conti, Patricia

COMBEL, 2006. Condition: Nuevo. In the early years the young learn many things: how to dress, to sleep or to give up using the dummy. The Good Habits series will make things easier for mothers and fathers. Youngsters must also learn how to behave in the street, at table, with their elders or with other children. The Good Manners series offers some simple guidelines in an amusing way. In addition, each book includes a weekly chart and stickers so that the boys and girls can check their progress on a daily basis. And when they accomplish what they set out to do, they get a champion's medal!
