Excerpt from book: Ill. June 10th My Dear G: In your recent letter you have asked me why I spend so much time and ink upon the affectations of that sublimated column conductor. You admit that he is entertaining, but you fail to perceive in him any real merit as a critic, and you conclude, therefore, that he is merely a very clever pyrotechnist. An opinion widely held in America: Mencken as a kind of intellectual jumping jack. Before I explode this, I must say something about the current literary criticism of the country. I will pass by such connoisseurs as Huneker, Lewisohn, Brooks, Wright, and Heller, and speak only of the intelligent reviewers who concern themselves with the contemporary letters. By intelligent, of course, are disqualified all those derelict street walkers from the old Dial and Nation establishments who waste so much good space in big eastern dailies; and there...
