AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 80 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. This small book has three strands. First, it is about escaping from the workaday world. The hull comes to a point at the bow and again at the stern to split the waves breaking in the front and back. It carried stones from the beach for ballast until they were jettisoned and replaced by a like weight in fish. From twenty-five to forty feet in length, with a crew of two, this was the only mode of transportation to and from the island for many years...
