Freya flew across the sky and hit a jagged rock wall in a gloomy dark cave. Her hand slowly reached up to her head. She could feel the blood dripping down her cheek. The wind made her eyes twitch. She pulled away her hand and saw the dark red blood on her pale dry fingers. A tear fell from her eye. On its way down her face it turned red from the blood. The screams could be heard almost as if it were an echo. She tried to take in her surroundings, she winced at the pain and then the world went black.
