University of Nebraska Press, United States, 1987. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 202 x 136 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Albert and Jennie Barnitz were both perceptive, articulate individuals who fully realized that they were involved in fascinating historically important events. They have left a record of frontier military life that can scarcely be matched elsewhere. Historian and buff alike will find this volume both enlightening and entertaining. --Paul A. Hutton, Journal of American History The reader will come to like Albert and Jennie Barnitz, whose letters trigger a time machine in which we come to know a good deal more about Life in Custer s Cavalry. --Montana Albert Barnitz served with Custer s famed Seventh Cavalry for four years, 1867-70. In 1867 Albert and Jennie (Platt), both of Ohio, married and headed for the Kansas frontier. Four months later the growing perils of Indian clashes forced her to return east. [Their] letters and diaries, dated from January 17, 1867, to February 10, 1869, are vivid and accurate. [They] provide a keen picture of life in the Seventh Cavalry, both in garrison and field, immediately after the Civil War. --The Historian Editor Robert Utley s books available in Bison Books editions include Billy the Kid: A Short and Violent Life; Frontier Regulars: The United States Army and the Indian, 1866-1891; and Frontiersmen in Blue: The United States Army and the Indian, 1848-1865.
