Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . At mischief again, of course: always at it. Mrs Potter said this angrily, and with much emphasis, as she seized her son by the arm and dragged him out of a pool of dirty water, into which he had tumbled. Always at mischief of one sort or another, he is, continued Mrs Potter, with increasing wrath, morning, noon, and night-he is; tumblin about an smashin things for ever he does; he ll break my heart at last-he will. There: take that! That, which poor little Tommy was desired to take, was a sounding box on the ear, accompanied by a violent shake of the arm which would have drawn that limb out of its socket if the child s bones and muscles had not been very tightly strung together.
