Man s wisdom takes its rise in fear; And fear hath torment, though in hearts sincere. God s wisdom flows in perfect love, And lifts the fallen soul all fear above. Be ours to search that flood of strength, To trace its rise and prosecute its length, And view its breadth, as finite man Such boundless bliss may incompletely scan. See first a righteous fear induce Faith in a guidance from which sin broke loose, - Enlightened faith, as taught by grief Unknown before its act of unbelief. From faith so warned to keep its course, And persevering, grows a nobler force, - A faith renewed, with larger scope, In which fear falls, and is replaced by hope. So stayed by hope and turned toward things Not seen, for else hope were not hope, faith brings The faithful soul into such state, That all its works on love and knowledge wait. Then faith and hope, not slain like fear, Are lost, in that they can no more appear. Through doubt and...
