Reviews

This book is definitely not easy to get going on reading through but extremely exciting to see. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. I am pleased to explain how here is the finest book i actually have read inside my individual daily life and may be he best book for ever.

Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Education in France in 1916-1918 In the course of a recent manifestation in favor of physical education, organized at Bordeaux, M. Henry Pate, deputy, delivered a very interesting address, in which he stated that he and some of his colleagues in the house of deputies had decided to participate actively in the physical education and athletics of the young, in accordance with the following program: (1) To adopt a general method of rational physical instruction, based on a knowledge of the physical needs of the subject, the specialization of the work, and the attraction of the exercise. (2) To create regional schools and a superior school destined to create and to maintain a unity of methods. (3) To open these schools to the physical instructors of the army, to the monitors of the preparation for military service, and to the instructors of both sexes. (4) To direct the young toward outdoor exercises, giving them freely. (6) To obtain (a) the simplification of school programs, which are frightfully overloaded and tend to destroy energy; (b) the introduction of a physical test in all examinations; (0) the institution of outdoor schools and open-air or outdoor colonies for the physically abnormal children; and (d) the complete reorganization of school medical inspection. (7) To assure the employment of special professors of gymnastics. (8) To demand legislation providing for obligatory post-graduate instruction and the introduction of the eight-hour day (la semaine an glaise), so as not to injure the vocational work of the adults, or their apprenticeship, or reduce the wages to which they may aspire. (9) To give a larger place in the training for military service to physical education and...
