THE ALTAR OF AMAZING CHANCE (PAPERBACK)

Two Poets Ink, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Margot Lavoie's amazing poems have tender skin and deep hearts. Whether wandering or rooted, they are comforting and delicious as Summer. lying down naked/ on top of cool clean sheets/ beneath the whir of the paddle fan. Lavoie is keenly aware of the gifts replete in every road, arrival, and memory. Welcome this most refreshing voice. Review by Naomi Shihab Nye, author of Honeybee and 19 Varieties of Gazelle The poems in The Altar of Amazing Chance, while addressing the ordinary things of our lives, lift us from the ordinary by their seamless language, power, and intent. They speak of the familiar--coyotes, bulldozers, summer, the interstate--with delicious surprise. Indeed, they advocate surprise:]you must step off the train/that has been your life. Review by Jo McDougall, author of Dirt and Satisfied with Havoc Poet Margot Lavoie debuts with a collection of accessible poems that inspires the reader to wander and then invites them sweetly home again. Lavoie, a native of Syracuse, New York, currently lives in Prairie Grove, Arkansas with her husband Tom. The Altar of Amazing Chance is the first publication of Two Poets Ink, a creative collaboration by poets Mendy Knott and G. Leigh Wilkerson. Book design by Liz Lester. Cover art by Ginny Masullo.
