Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Rights of Colored Men to Suffrage, Citizenship and Trial by Jury Object Stated. The object of this book is to call to mind, from the records of the past, some of many testimonies to be found of the rights and services of colored men. The exclusion of this class from social intercourse, throws them into the shade. Comparatively, they are withdrawn from general observation; and this circumstance, of itself, tends to a forgetfulness of their claims. It is a fact, that in proportion as the services they have rendered the country have faded from the memory, so it seems a callousness of feeling towards them has increased. It is not with the present generation of men, as with the generation who preceded it. Then, when the country had just emerged from the revolutionary struggle - when the services and sufferings of men of color were fresh in the memory - then, as says one who participated in the conflict - The war over and peace restored, these men returned to their respective States and homes; and who could have said to them, on their returning to civil life, after having shed their blood in common with the whites, for the liberties of the country - You are not to participate in the rights or liberty for which you have been fighting! Certainly no white man. But it is not so now; as is painfully evinced by the successive disfranchisements with which they have been visited, in the constitutions of New Jersey, Connecticut, New York, and by the recent vote of the Reform Convention of Pennsylvania. History of Services - Materials. It is to be regretted...
