Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Acting is a tool for freedom of expression and choice, a mirror of possibility for humankind. Acting is a powerful medium for reflecting authenticity in the human experience. Hollywood Actors Studio is dedicated to providing excellent and distinct training and to promoting the actor as artist in the community. The Studio is a safe, fun and supportive environment for artistic discoveries and personal growth. We train people in revealing their true talents and realizing their potential. Our purpose is to offer top-notch acting, self-expression and public speaking training programs to enhance communication and liberate the individual s creativity and expression. We deliver clear distinctions via tools and techniques, which bring lasting advancements in artistic expression, growth and development, personal effectiveness and passionate communication. In this book, you will find distinctions in the craft of acting which aim at giving acting a context as an art form that can be learned and practiced, not a vague talent that some people are born with and others not. This manual is designed to facilitate your understanding, study and pursuit of acting as a craft. You will also find in it definitions and insights about the basic language and terminology of the craft as well as clarifications on fundamental concepts and ideas. By developing a clear understanding of the craft, and by creating a healthy context for the study of acting, it is much easier to develop and become skilled and competent. It also helps develop respect for acting as a craft and an art form-something that can touch, affect and communicate with people. The worst enemies of actors are not the job market, Hollywood, corrupt and incompetent agents or producers. Competition is not the fundamental problem...
