Green Ivy, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. I m pleased to introduce my book, The Legacy and Its Continuation: From Then to Eternity. This novel introduces a young boy, Kassieu Madeu, who is taken from Ivory Coast to America as a slave and given the name of Joe Henry. This story also tells about his courage to adapt to a new culture and his favor with his master, moving from the field to the house. He later marries a woman named Mary Alice, who is a water girl. And through the years, they have a son named John Henry, who later becomes a blacksmith in Mississippi. As he travels to the South, John Henry marries Kitsie and had 10 children. Since The Legacy and Its Continuation: From Then to Eternity has such an inspiration on genealogies of historic events, it shall have a great impact on people in every society. The people who read this book will cherish it for its past, present, and future events. This story begins in West Africa s coastal region and ends up in Jackson, Mississippi. Meanwhile, here is the story that was passed down from generation to generation on my paternal side. Thanks a lot, Adrian M. Caston.
