Reviews

It is one of the most popular books. I am quite late in starting to read this one, but better than never. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

GENEALOGY OF HENRY AND MARY CONKLING (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Genealogy of Henry and Mary Conkling After a pretty thorough research of the biographies and the genealogical works to be found in the Library at the State Capitol, and the Historical Building of the State of Iowa, relative to the Conklings in the United States, my conclusions are that - John Conkling was probably the first to emigrate to America. He lived at Nottinghamshire, England. The records of Saint Patrick s parish church in that county show that John Conkling married Elizabeth Allseabrook. January 24, 1625. They had two sons. John and Ananias. Leaving England with his family about the year 1635, John Conkling landed at Boston, and settled at Salem, Massachusetts. He and his sons engaged in the manufacture of glass, and in the early land grants they are described as glass men. Their establishment is said by some historians of American industries to have been the first one of the sort in this country. The earliest records of the Conkling family in the United States are to be found at Salem; and the following notes are taken from the original book of grants of that place: (1) 25th day of fourth Moneth 1638. Its orded that Ananias Conclane and William Osborne shall have an acre apiece for house lots. (2) 25th day of the 12 Moneth 1638. Granted to Edmond Marshall 3 acres near the 10 acrelott of Ananias Concline. (The latter was made a freeman in the same year. A. R. C.) (3) The 19th day of the sixth Moneth 1639.: At a genall town meeting granted Ananias Concklyn one acre nere unto his dwelling house. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes...
