Arms Out.Kiano Sees the World (Paperback)

By Marilyn E Briant

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Jan Stamm (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Do thoughts really make something happen? Kiano is a small boy from a tiny village in East Africa who believes they do. For a long time, he has been fascinated by the pictures of cities like Paris, Rome, London and more that he has seen in a little book he found. He thinks that somehow he will get there. He knows he will see the sights and visit the awesome places he has read and learned all about. It is a warm, dark, night, but Kiano is wide awake. He steps outside and looks up into the starry, moonlit sky. He knows that sometimes, when you truly want something with all your heart, thinking about it can make it happen. With arms out, Kiano decides it is time to see the world.and his adventure begins.
