Old Ballad Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. A hacker with a chip on her shoulder. A mysterious online puzzle. A secret that will shock the world. This book reads as part DaVinci Code, part Martian and part Bourne Series. Recommend highly. Amazon Reviewer Haylie Black, a 17-year-old hacker with a chip on her shoulder, has never met a system she couldn't crack. When her brother vanishes trying to solve a legendary Internet puzzle, Haylie knows that she's the only one who can track him down. But as she begins to unwind the mysteries behind each clue, she finds herself getting pulled deeper and deeper into a secret world she never could have imagined. This award-winning thriller fuses action, tech, and a worldwide race against the clock to keep you turning pages and trying to stay one step ahead. An extraordinary debut novel: Kern's fantastic pacing keeps you on the edge of your seat the whole way. With surprises round every corner, Crash Alive is the perfect novel for our time: hackers, coding, suspense intrigue abound. Amazon Reviewer I haven't been drawn into a story so fully since I read Dan Brown's Da Vinci Code for the first time. Amazon Reviewer If you are looking for a fast-paced book (the kind you can't put down at 1:00 in the morning when you know you need to get up for work, but you just need to read one more chapter.), this book is for you. Smartly written and engaging throughout. Amazon Reviewer This is a book that should easily stand up to all the summer's best, thrillers, and page-turners out there and will be especially gripping for anyone who pays even the slightest attention to...
