Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A History of the Origin of the Place Names: Connected With the Chicago North Western and Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis Omaha Railways The primary purpose of this volume is to supply authentic information as to the origin and derivation of the names of the towns, cities and villages which are located on the Chicago and North Western and the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha Railways. In those instances where said names have some special meaning or significance, such meaning or significance is noted. While it was not in the plan of the work to furnish a history of the various places referred to, it has nevertheless often happened that the meaning or derivation of a name could only be made clear by introducing more or less information of an historic character. In such instances, the historic statement has been used. In compiling the work, voluminous correspondence has been had with state, county, city and town officials, for the purpose of gaining authentic information and of eliminating local, fanciful and unreliable legends. Local legends are generally the offspring of the imagination, or of personal vanity, and where reliable data is the end which is sought, are worthless. As far as possible these imaginative and local legends and traveler s stories have been eliminated and established facts alone have been accepted. While it is true that the investigations of the writer have shattered many pretty romances, it is not unlikely that others have escaped his notice and may yet be handed down as history. In some cases positive evidence concerning names and their origin, has already been lost, and in such cases, the best possible information attainable...
