Limitless Publishing, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The only thing cousins Sapphire Hope and Roxanna Revolution have in common is they don't want to spend the summer at their aunt's Iowa farm. Hope is an entitled L.A. rich-girl. Spoiled by her Oscar-winning mother and a CEO father, Hope thrives on the lifestyle of a jet-setting socialite and aspiring model. She has no interest in rural life, or the strange cousin who seems to want to be her friend. About the only thing even remotely interesting about the farm is the good-looking intern at her aunt's veterinary clinic, Dawn Matthews. He might do as a summer distraction. Roxanna is a sensitive loner. She spends her time playing guitar and posting videos for her YouTube subscribers, but at least at her aunt's, nobody knows what she's hiding. Since her secret drove her boyfriend away, she could use a few friends, but Sapphire clearly isn't interested-and even less so when Dawn prefers Roxanna's company over hers. When Roxanna's secret comes out, Sapphire, Roxanna, and their friends are forced to view their lives from a new perspective and face choices they never thought they'd have to make. Can friendship and new love help them overcome physical and emotional challenges and learn what's really important? Or will old habits and attitudes refuse to die?.
