

Vostok Station (Paperback)

By J D Huff

Severed Press, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Francis Hamlin accepts an invitation to work at a research station in the most remote and inaccessible place in the world-Vostok Station, Antarctica. This adventure is supposed to give him an opportunity to participate in discovering something truly unique with far reaching implications to positively impact the entire outside world. But what they do discover there is something truly horrific. When people begin to die, the terrifying truth of their situation sets in. They are trapped with no way to escape. All flights are impossible during the brutal winter. No one gets in; no one gets out. As the already small group begins to dwindle, Hamlin realizes that all the research is for naught if they cannot figure out a way to endure this long, dark winter where death is lurking around every corner. Can they overcome the persistent, unexpected doom that stalks them all at Vostok Station?.
