By Brandi Dobbins, Brie Paxton

Xulon Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . We live in a world where generations that follow are constantly altering their everyday beliefs, cultures and lifestyles of their past family histories. Most of the time, these changes are for the better. Some of these changes help make improvements to technology, economics and social lifestyles. However, some of the changes take away the identities of who we are and what we represent. The past and present, at times, seem incomparable; almost in a way where one could say we have lost a piece of our history, morals and values. In this book, Brandi and Brie give insight to the internal parts of the heart, mind and body. Their purpose and desire is to redefine an internal part that should have more of a conscious thought process. This topic gets a lot of action in today s movies, sitcom shows, magazines, education and in our everyday lives. They call it the COOKIE, because it s more than something sweet. This book goes beyond the...
