

Young Architects: City Limits: City Limits (Paperback)

By Servo, KEMPF

PRINCETON ARCHITECTURAL PRESS, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. illustrated ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book. This volume presents the work of a young generation of architects, as selected by the jury of the Architectural League's annual Young Architects competition. This year's winners were asked: in what ways do current modes of architectural production address cities as artefacts and cities as visions? The responses are varied, from Petra Kempf's hand-drawn series of diagrams of urban movement, transportation and form, to Teddy Cruz's ongoing involvement in the development of the US/Latin border, through SERVO's series of product lines, Thaddeus Briner's design for a football stadium, Manifold's RANT project, a design for Manhattan's east side, and nARCHITECTS's Hotel Pro Forma. Together these new designers explore the possibilities for urban development in text and graphics.
