I floated out of my body. I could look down and see my body surrounded by medical people trying to save me. I could see the bald spots on the heads of two doctors. I could hear what they were saying. I seemed to float out of the hospital when I saw them applying paddles to my chest, and suddenly I snapped back to my body. I was breathing again. I was alive again. Life After Death Redux is an inspirational book about the very personal experiences of people who experienced the Other Side of Death...
