Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.GENRE: ADULT ROMANCE All for Love is a first person narrative of an adult family romance, from the perspective of a defiant mother, a heart-broken yet loving father and a suffering daughter. The book is divided across 4 chapters. The first chapter All for Love is the mother s version of the story where she shares her insecurities and decisions that resulted in her going against her partner. She begins with narration of her affair with her to-be life partner and shares her version where and how the relationship went haywire. Even after all this happened, she maintained she never lost her immense love and respect for her husband and acknowledges that he always loved her more than she could. The second chapter Steel can t Heal is the father s turn to express himself, where he describes his need to remain strong after separation but feels heart-broken. Rather than putting up a fight, with a heavy heart he chooses to let go of his lady at will, accompanying another man she wanted to be with. Was this because he loved her beyond anything, is a question he leaves unanswered. It s his affection for his daughter that keeps him moving. The daughter s version is captured in When Rough meets Enough . She loves her Dad more than her Mom. She believed Dad to be soft-hearted, but shares that she was proven wrong the day her mom s boyfriend hit her mom and Dad became a beast to make a vegetable out of that boyfriend . It was then she realized that her Dad was a Man of Steel - a Lover in true...
