Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Piercing the Veils of Death: A Paranormal Exploration offers the reader both fiction and nonfiction alike. There are three distinct sections designed to grab the reader and hold his or her attention. In the first section, Stephen and Tracy Allendale, childhood sweethearts - now married and in the prime of their lives, suddenly experience a life-changing event when Stephen has a routine surgery and then has an allergic reaction to the anesthesia. Stephen dies, only he does not know he is deceased. The tale follows Stephen through the funeral process and then we observe as the couple refuses to let go and their love reaches beyond the hereafter. The second section, offers quasi-memoirs and informational chapters offered by the author as he travels into his ancestral past and delves into the Native American Indian Spirit, followed by adventure in Salem, Ma, and New Orleans, La. In addition to personal stories, the author explores such phenomenon as resurrection of the dead, angels and demons, and pets in the afterlife. This section also presents spiritual and religious matters concerning the paranormal including...
