The counsel for Appellant, in reply and against the motion: Under the Gonstitution and laws of our State, an accomplice in bribery cases stands upon the same ground as accomplices in other felonies, except that he may be compelled to testify, etc. In a prosecution for receiving a bribe, the Constitution makes the accomplice, who is the bribe-giver, a compulsory witness. It does not pretend, to whitewash him, or invest him with either respectability or credibility. The defect in the evidence of an accomplice is not in its quantity, but in its quality. Joy on Accomplices, p. 9. Res gestnz consists of two parts, the accompanying acts and declarations attending them. The cries of the bystanders While the thing is being done are original and not hearsay evidence, because they are part of the res gestae, but a party...
