So this book is neither a brag nor boast But just to inspire our younger host To elevate their racial name From poisoned stains of slavery shame, By climbing to the highest heights Thro aid of friends who are real whites. Twenty-Five years ago, when a lad fifteen years old attending the public schools of Pennsylvania, in which State I was born and reared, certain ideas and sentiments caused me to secretly resolve that some day, when I had gotten together the necessary data, I would write just such a book as is contained herein. At the time that resolution was formed, I was attending the Darlington School in...
