These fictional passages give a direct look into the world known as Church. The people need to know the truth about their religious lives and the people who are taking advantage of their situations. Church leaders need to be accountable and Churchgoers need to be more cautious of their surroundings. Many leaders have whored themselves out to money, fame, and sexual escapades without any regard to morality. Lovelace Hugh Rickover, one of the main characters, is deceived by the facade of morality and is lost in the meaning of being righteous and holy. Hugh like others needs to wake up and know spirituality rather than religion. The hurt and the pain of existence becomes unbearable and Hugh wonders what is the next step in life.
