

Beating Procrastination: The Procrastinators Ultimate Guide (Paperback)

By Angie Stevens

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Procrastination , you wouldn t even know the spelling of the word and you might have already developed the syndrome. You wouldn t be here otherwise. Well, now that you have taken a step towards overcoming procrastination this could be your way out to a better tomorrow. As a human being you are bound to social interaction. Parents, teachers, friends, colleagues, associates etc., you maintain a relationship with each of them. There is another relationship that you exercise every day and this relationship is stronger and deeper than all the others put together and that is the relationship you share yourself. You talk to yourself, don t you? Be it a real life event, a hypothetical situation and even a movie for that matter, intellectual debates are a colossal intervention. These points that make take down subconsciously converse with you at the most irrelevant times thus, creating an extraterrestrial environment. Procrastination is the urge to work on those not - so - important tasks rather than concentrating on the main task that may have a deadline or may have...
