Our hero made this remark one night to himself, which was overheard and replied to by his friend, Captain Dall, in a manner that surprised him. It s my opinion, doctor, said the captain in a low voice, that this is the last time you or I will ever be at sea, or anywhere else, if our skipper don t look better after his men, for a more rascally crew I never set eyes on, and, from a word or two I have heard dropped now and then, I feel sure some mischief is in the wind. Come aft with me to a place where we ain t so likely to be overheard by eavesdroppers, and I ll tell you all about it.
