Judge Richard Posner, Seventh Circuit Federal District Appeals Court The question presented by the present case a question on which we cannot find any case law is whether, or more precisely when, audiotapes of a judicial proceeding should be deemed judicial records within the meaning of the access rule. A transcript was made from the tape, but the transcript is not the original; the tape is. he has a right of access. We do not think that these should be deemed judicial records, unless some reason is shown to distrust the accuracy of the stenographic transcript. Smith v.
