Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Juvenile Instructor, Vol. 49: February, 1914 Let us notice this boy a little more closely. Mark his sturdy little limbs, and the robust body which holds the large head so proudly erect! He is but eight years old, but already he is adding materially to the financial support of his widowed mother and his two sisters. Day after day he is doing his part in the big quarry. He has been trained to work, and already the supple muscles and the well-knit frame give evidence of the strong man that is to be. Only eight years old, but mark him well! For already those blue eyes are beginning to reflect some little of the glory of the dreams which pass and repass in the mind. But a little sand-boy now, but soon this same little sand-boy is to become one of the presidents of the greatest organization for young men in all the world. That voice, so shrill and wavering now, is soon to sway the judgment of count less thousands by its mature eloquence. That humble, obscure little son of a widow, is, when grown to manhood, to take his place as the chosen representative of one of the world's great commonwealths, and upon him shall center one of the greatest tests of a nation's organic law yet witnessed. Because of him one of the world's greatest legislative bodies shall be set at variance and the balance of mankind shall look on with wonder and amazement!
