Visited: March 10, 1910; February 2, March 29, 1911. At the last visit we saw this School in holiday attire, as the legislators were visiting the institution. The children were all at work in the various departments during the evening, and much of their work on exhibition was a credit to both teachers and superintendent. A fire drill was given in the morning and in less than three minutes the 290 pupils were all outside of the building. The kindergarten work is splendid. The children have two gymnasiums, in which they receive excellent training. STATE SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF. Visited: April 4, 1910; January 19, 1911. In the printing department the new linotype has been installed and found to be a great help in getting out work, besides teaching the boys the use of it. The hospital, recently painted by the boys, is very attractive in the light shades of tan and green. The children all seem happy and we found the same kindly influence as usual. STATE SANATORIUM. Visited: October 13, 1910; April 29, 1911. This, the newest of our state institutions, is beautifully located and has all the advantages of pure fresh air, so much needed by the patients cared for. The receiving cottages for men and women, accommodating twelve patients, have in each room a bed and reclining chair, which is rolled out onto the veranda during the day. All the cottages and shacks are well equipped with bathrooms,...
