CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 260 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Eaglequest takes its readers on an inner journey, using a combination of metaphors and imagery, bringing to the surface the inner well of happiness that lies within each of us. The book truly is an experience. It describes and nurtures what is known as the hero within, an inner, joyful force that is waiting for its chance to rise to the surface (hero is a male noun but is meant to be interchangeable with heroine while reading). Eaglequest came from the knowledge of some of the worlds great traditions who utilize inner guidance. It presents a compelling way of approaching life and an intriguing framework within which to explore and tap into the deepest, most profound and joyful aspects of the inner self. The book acts as a guide for a direct and immediate personal experience of greater fulfillment. The underlying message of the book is: There is more to life than what is commonly experienced. Everyone, regardless of his or her past, or present life circumstances, has the potential to feel at peace, and to bring more rapture into life than ever imagined. Eaglequest introduces the reader to his or her own hero within, then guides and nurtures this hero to full maturity. The chosen metaphors and images have been used for thousands of years by ancient shamans as well as more recent seekers of truth, enable readers to associate their own humanness with far less abstraction than is usually possible. The language of symbols, images, and metaphors is the most basic way that we all learn. A symbol is a device by which a message is carried effectively to the subconscious part of the mind. Symbols and metaphors...
