Book 1 of The Cradle to Cross Trilogy (Winner of Compilations and Anthologies from Independent Publishers) and the recipient of Dove Family Award and Mom s Choice Silver Achievement. There was a shepherd boy. Asleep on the job when the angels came to announce, the Messiah is born in Bethlehem. He missed it. His brothers and his father rush to see this great thing but Bozra begs off so he can tend the sheep and prove his manhood. When royalty pass through the familys fields south of Bethlehem looking for the new king, Bozra begs to go with them. But Father says, no Bozra, Im sorry, you have work to do, someday. But Bozra wonders if someday will ever come when his brother returns from Bethlehem having witnessed the slaughter of baby boys at the hands of the Romans. Could they have killed Yeshua, Father? He asked. It would take a miracle for Yeshua to survive, my son. Bozra prays for that miracle. Surprised by romance Bozra marries in the midst of tragedy when his father suddenly collapses. There...
