

MELD and EGON A Way Out of Americas Political Dementia

By Kenneth Willis

iUniverse, Inc. Paperback. Condition: New. 160 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.4in. Political debate has been reduced to the spin of politicians, ignoring scientific fact and reason. Vested interests dominate Americas political landscape. A solution to this dilemma is feasible with the use of reason and a consistent vocabulary of political words. America is a republic, not a democracy. Our greatness is based on a sound constitution that defines the architecture of the Republic and a respect for the rule of law. Historically, we prized laws that defined what citizens may do and minimized must do laws. Power-hungry politicians and their sycophants are rapidly eroding the foundation of this magnificent social structure. After 200 years of wear and tear, our government is in critical need of repair. This book describes why and how. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
