LETTRES SUR L AMERIQUE (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: French . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . La speculation et les affaires, le travail et l action, voila donc, sous diverses formes, la specialite que les Americains ont choisie et a laquelle ils se vouent avec une ardeur qui tient de l acharnement. C etait celle qu ils devaient adopter, celle que leur avait assignee le doigt de la Providence, afin que la civilisation fut, dans le plus bref delai possible, mise en possession d un continent. Je ne puis sans douleur, penser qu il y eut un moment ou la France semblait appelee a partager la gloire de cette grande mission avec les deux peuples entre lesquels Dieu l a placee, aussi bien sous le rapport du caractere et des institutions que sous celui de la position geographique, avec les Anglais et les Espagnols. Tandis que l Espagne, alors reine du monde, envahissait l Amerique du Sud et le vaste empire du Mexique, y civilisait, le sabre a la main, la population indienne, et y batissait des villes monumentales qui temoigneront de son genie et de sa puissance bien des siecles apres que les declamations de ses detracteurs seront tombees dans l oubli; tandis que l Angleterre posait de chetives colonies sur la plage aride de l Amerique du Nord, la France explorait la gigantesque vallee du Pere des eaux, et s emparait du Saint-Laurent, pres de qui notre Rhin, tranquille et fier, n est qu un ruisseau modeste; nous couronnions de fortifications le rocher a pic, de Quebec, nous batissions Montreal, nous fondions la Nouvelle-Orleans et Saint-Louis, et, ca et la, nous defrichions les riches plaines de l Illinois.
