By B. J. Baines

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book shows that no matter what the social issues or school crises of the moment from segregation and integration of the public school system in the 50 s, gum-chewing and rebellion, removal of prayer in schools in the 60s, to drugs, and gang-related activities, and violence in today s 21st century school system --- the educator has the unique calling to reach out and truly educate and enlighten our students who will become the hope for tomorrow s future. This book will serve as a guide to enlighten educators that the basics of education remain the same, which is to educate, train and develop students despite the external circumstances they may face in life.
